

PRESENTS
the 2015

STEM Design CONTEST

Deadline for Submissions: December 12, 2014

Ages: K-12 & College

The San Diego Festival of Science & Engineering is extending an open invitation to students of all ages to design a graphic for our 2015 Festival merchandise.

It's easy to apply! Students can submit their art along with the short application via e-mail.

Winners will be awarded an educational stipend, a framed original of their artwork, and choice of printed merchandise.

*All designs must be STEM related
